

THREE DIRECTORS OF CORNING HEALTHCARE DISTRICT TAKE OATH OF OFFICE

Three directors of Corning Healthcare District take Oath of Office. President Boles made the announcement.

Ross Turner is the longest standing member of that district's board. He first took office in 2009. He has been an active participant in the community for many years. He has served on several other boards including National FFA, the Mosquito Vector District Board, and the Corning Fire Department planning Commission. Many have known him as their Eagle Scout Leader.

Lilia Rodriguez first joined the Corning Healthcare District Board in 2016. She is bilingual and understands the Hispanic culture of local residence. She has served as the phlebotomist with Quest Diagnostics for over ten years. She served on the school board in Corning.

Patricia Hunn is the newest member of the Corning Healthcare District Board of Directors (CHDB). She worked as a payroll clerk and bookkeeper until retirement. Still wanting to be active in community service, she became an academic adviser at Chico State for twelve years. She currently volunteers at Corning Christian assistance as well as being an active member of the Board.

"We are so grateful for Ross, Lilia, Pat and others like them who volunteer to take part in serving our community," said President Boles. "without them clinics would have to
